Sokar,

Have you had a chance to write up standard verbiage for PV descriptions?

Important Inspection Information

In order to protect the privacy of residents and to promote safety among residents and inspectors alike, the following policies are in effect:

- Inspectors will not enter fenced in yards to conduct inspections unless accompanied by a responsible adult or unless permission to enter has been provide by a written note left at the site. The note may be left on the gate providing access to the yard, on the front door or with the inspection packet (plans and job card) left at those locations. All dogs (even friendly ones) must be secured in another location.

- Inspectors will not enter an unoccupied residence or business to conduct inspections, unless accompanied by a responsible adult, if there are any possessions in the structure. Inspectors may enter unoccupied, vacant structures without an escort provided written permission to enter has been provided as indicated above.

- Inspectors will not enter a residence or business to conduct inspections where minor children under the age of eighteen are the sole occupants. Inspectors may enter a residence or business where minor children are present under the supervision of a responsible adult.
