CITY OF HUNTINGTON BEACH
2008-2014 HOUSING ELEMENT

City of Huntington Beach
Department of Planning
2000 Main Street
Huntington Beach, CA 92648

Adopted June 16, 2008

Consultant to the City:

Karen Warner Associates
Housing Policy Consultants

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SECTION PAGE

I. Introduction
- A. Role and Organization of Housing Element I-1
- B. Sources of Information I-2
- C. Public Participation I-3
- D. Relationship to Other General Plan Elements I-4

II. Housing Needs Assessment
- A. Demographic Profile II-1
- B. Household Profile II-7
- C. Housing Stock Characteristics II-20
- D. Regional Housing Needs II-40

III. Housing Constraints
- A. Governmental Constraints III-1
- B. Market Constraints III-25
- C. Environmental and Infrastructure Constraints III-27

IV. Housing Resources
- A. Availability of Sites for Housing IV-1
- B. Financial Resources IV-21
- C. Administrative Resources IV-26
- D. Opportunities for Energy Conservation IV-27

V. Housing Plan
- A. Evaluation of Accomplishments V-1
- B. Goals and Policies V-12
- C. Housing Programs V-15

APPENDICES

- A. Residential Sites Inventory
- B. Adequate Sites Program Alternative Checklist
- C. Residential Building Permits
- D. Public Comments

LIST OF TABLES

TABLE PAGE

Housing Needs Assessment

II-1 Regional Population Growth Trends II-2
II-2 Age Distribution II-4
II-3 Racial and Ethnic Composition II-5
II-4 Occupation of Residents II-6
II-5 Household Characteristics II-7
II-6 State Income Categories II-8
II-7 Household Income Levels II-9
II-8 Income by Owner/RenterTenure II-9
II-9 Income Level by Household Type II-10
II-10 Poverty Status II-10
II-11 Special Needs Populations II-13
II-12 Regional Housing Growth Trends II-21
II-13 Housing Type II-21
II-14 Housing Tenure II-22
II-15 Age of Housing Stock II-24
II-16 Summary of Housing Conditions II-25
II-17 Apartment Rental Trends II-29
II-18 Home and Condominium Sales Prices - Huntington Beach and Environs II-31
II-19 Home and Condominium Sales Prices - Huntington Beach II-33
II-20 Maximum Affordable Housing Cost II-35
II-21 Maximum Affordable Rents II-35
II-22 Assisted Rental Housing Inventory II-36
II-23 Market Value of At-Risk Projects II-38
II-24 Required Rent Subsidies for At-Risk Projects II-39
II-25 Overcrowded Households II-40
II-26 Housing Overpayment II-42
II-27 Severe Housing Cost Burden by Type and Tenure II-44
II-28 Regional Housing Needs Assessment II-46

Housing Constraints

III-1 Residential Development Standards III-2
III-2 Inclusionary Housing In-lieu Fee III-5
III-3 Housing Types by Residential Zone Category III-8
III-4 Summary of Development Fees – Prototypical Residential Projects III-17
III-5 Residential Development Fees III-18
III-6 Development Processing Times III-22
III-7 Status of Home Purchase Loans III-25

Housing Resources

IV-1 Vacant Land Summary IV-3
IV-2 Developable Vacant Residential Sites IV-4

List of Tables (cont'd)

IV-3 Residential Development Potential - Project with Entitlements IV-7
IV-4 Surplus School Sites IV-8
IV-5 Comparison of Regional Growth Needs and Residential Sites IV-11
IV-6 Beach/Edinger Corridor Specific Plan IV-16
IV-7 Sites for Potential Rezoning to Exclusive Residential Use IV-17
IV-8 Financial Resources Available for Housing Activities IV-22

Housing Plan
V-1 Review of Accomplishments under 2000 Housing Element V-2
V-2 Summary of Quantified Objectives V-8
V-3 Residential Activity in the Coastal Zone V-11
V-4 Housing Program Summary V-32

List of Figures

Figure Page

1 Census Tract Boundaries II-3
2 Lower Income Census Block Groups II-12
3 Renter Occupied Housing II-23
4 Deteriorated/ Deteriorating Areas II-27
5 Median Housing Sales Price: October 2007 ..... II-32
6 Severe Renter Overcrowding II-41
7 Severe Renter Overpayment II-43
8 Residential Sites Inventory IV-2
9 Sites to be Rezoned for Exclusively Residential Uses IV-20