

CITY OF HUNTINGTON BEACH

COMMISSION, BOARD, AND COMMITTEE APPLICATION

Please submit the completed application to:

The City Council Offices - 4th Floor,
2000 Main Street
Huntington Beach, CA 92648

Thank you for your interest in serving on one of Huntington Beach's citizen advisory groups. The City Council is comprised of seven members who are elected at-large to a four-year term, with a two-term limitation.

Members of the city's boards, commissions, committees, or task forces also serve four-year terms with a two-term limitation. Appointment to a city advisory body is at the City Council's discretion. However, members must be United States citizens and residents of the city, and it is not permitted to hold an appointment to more than one board or commission at the same time.

Citizen committees, boards, and commissions serve as advisory bodies to the City Council. All boards and commissions are established by ordinance, while committees and may be established by resolution. Task forces address specific issues within the community that have been formally recognized by the City Council. Any responsibility or authority they have is given to them by the City Council. With a few exceptions, the decisions of an advisory body may be appealed to the City Council, and the City Council retains the right to overturn these decisions. Specific definitions of the role of these bodies as defined in Chapter 2.100 of the city's municipal codes are shown below. PLEASE NOTE: Members of all city boards, commissions, and committees are required bi-annually to take harassment training and two hours of ethics training as set forth in State Law, AB 1234.

A BOARD is a body of members appointed by the City Council pursuant to City Charter Section 405 to serve in a continuing advisory capacity to the City Council.

A COMMISSION is a body of members appointed by the City Council pursuant to City Charter Section 405 that may have decision-making authority over those activities delegated to them by the City Council.

A COMMITTEE is a body of members appointed by the City Council pursuant to City Charter Section 405 on an ad hoc basis to advise the City Council on a particular matter.

DESCRIPTIONS: In order to assist you in selecting a citizen body that would be compatible with your interests and qualifications, a brief description of the responsibilities and/or authority delegated to each body is provided below.
