(City Council/Redevelopment Agency) Mixed-Use Projects Tour of Three Projects Conducted: Broadway Arms in Downtown Anaheim, Stadium Lofts in Anaheim Platinum Triangle, and City Walk at Vantis in Aliso Viejo

Mary Anderson, Principal - CIM Group gave a presentation regarding the Broadway Arms project. She described the project as consisting of approximately 500 rental/condominium units and retail space on the ground floor. In response to inquiries, she explained the developer's goal to attract retail that will complement the residential units and provide desirable services, such as restaurants. She described methods used by the developer to mitigate noise, including double-paned windows and hours of quiet. Ms. Anderson explained that the residences are mainly two-bedroom, opining that will lead to greater stability with the tenancy. Discussion ensued pertaining to other local uses such as museums and theaters, amenities offered to residents, parking, and number of units per acre. The City Council then toured residential units. Mayor Coerper thanked Ms. Anderson for her presentation.

Recess for Travel – 10:35 a.m.

Reconvened at the Stadium Lofts in Anaheim Platinum Triangle – 11:08 a.m.

Trish Wolsky, Sales Agent - Windstar Development directed a tour of the facilities and residences at the Stadium Lofts. She described units for sale and their locations within the project, noise mitigation efforts such as double-paned windows and water treatments in courtyards, frequency of train traffic, and disclosure of odors from restaurants. She described the amenities available to residents and parking considerations. Eric Heffner, Senior Vice President – Windstar Development described the urbanization of Orange County and the impetus for this development. Mayor Coerper thanked Ms. Wolsky and Mr. Heffner for the presentation and tour.

Recess for Lunch and Travel – 12:07 p.m.

Reconvened at City Walk at Vantis in Aliso Viejo – 2:25 p.m.

Steve Castles, Community Development Manager – Shea Homes and Eugenia Garcia, Planning Director, City of Aliso Viejo gave a presentation describing the project and the Vantis Specific Plan. Ms. Garcia described the distinction between mixed-use projects and live-work projects, stating the latter is a type of mixed-use project. Mr. Castles and Ms. Garcia led a tour of the live-work residences and described restricted uses of the retail space, as outlined in the Vantis Specific Plan. Mayor Coerper thanked Mr. Castles and Ms. Garcia for the presentation and tour.
