

Library Card Design Challenge

The Huntington Beach Public Library is inviting artists of all ages to help design the artwork for our new library cards. Draw/paint/color/sketch your design within the box below (digitally created images are acceptable but please, no photography). The actual library card size is 3 3/8" by 2 1/8". The image will be resized to fit these dimensions.

A large, empty rectangular box with a dark red border, intended for artists to draw or sketch their library card design. The box is centered on the page and occupies a significant portion of the lower half of the document.

How to submit your design

Download a copy of the Library Card Design Challenge flyer (located on our homepage www.hbpl.org) or pick up a paper copy at the Central Library or from any of our branches (Main Street, Banning, Oak View or Murphy).

Fill out the form (backside of the flyer), indicating your age/grade category, your name, contact information, a title for your artwork and why your design should be chosen.

Draw your submission in the box located on the form then either scan it (300dpi) and email it to us at: LibraryContest@surfcity-hb.org or drop off a paper submission to the Central Library or any of our branches.
