

OUR HOME TOWN

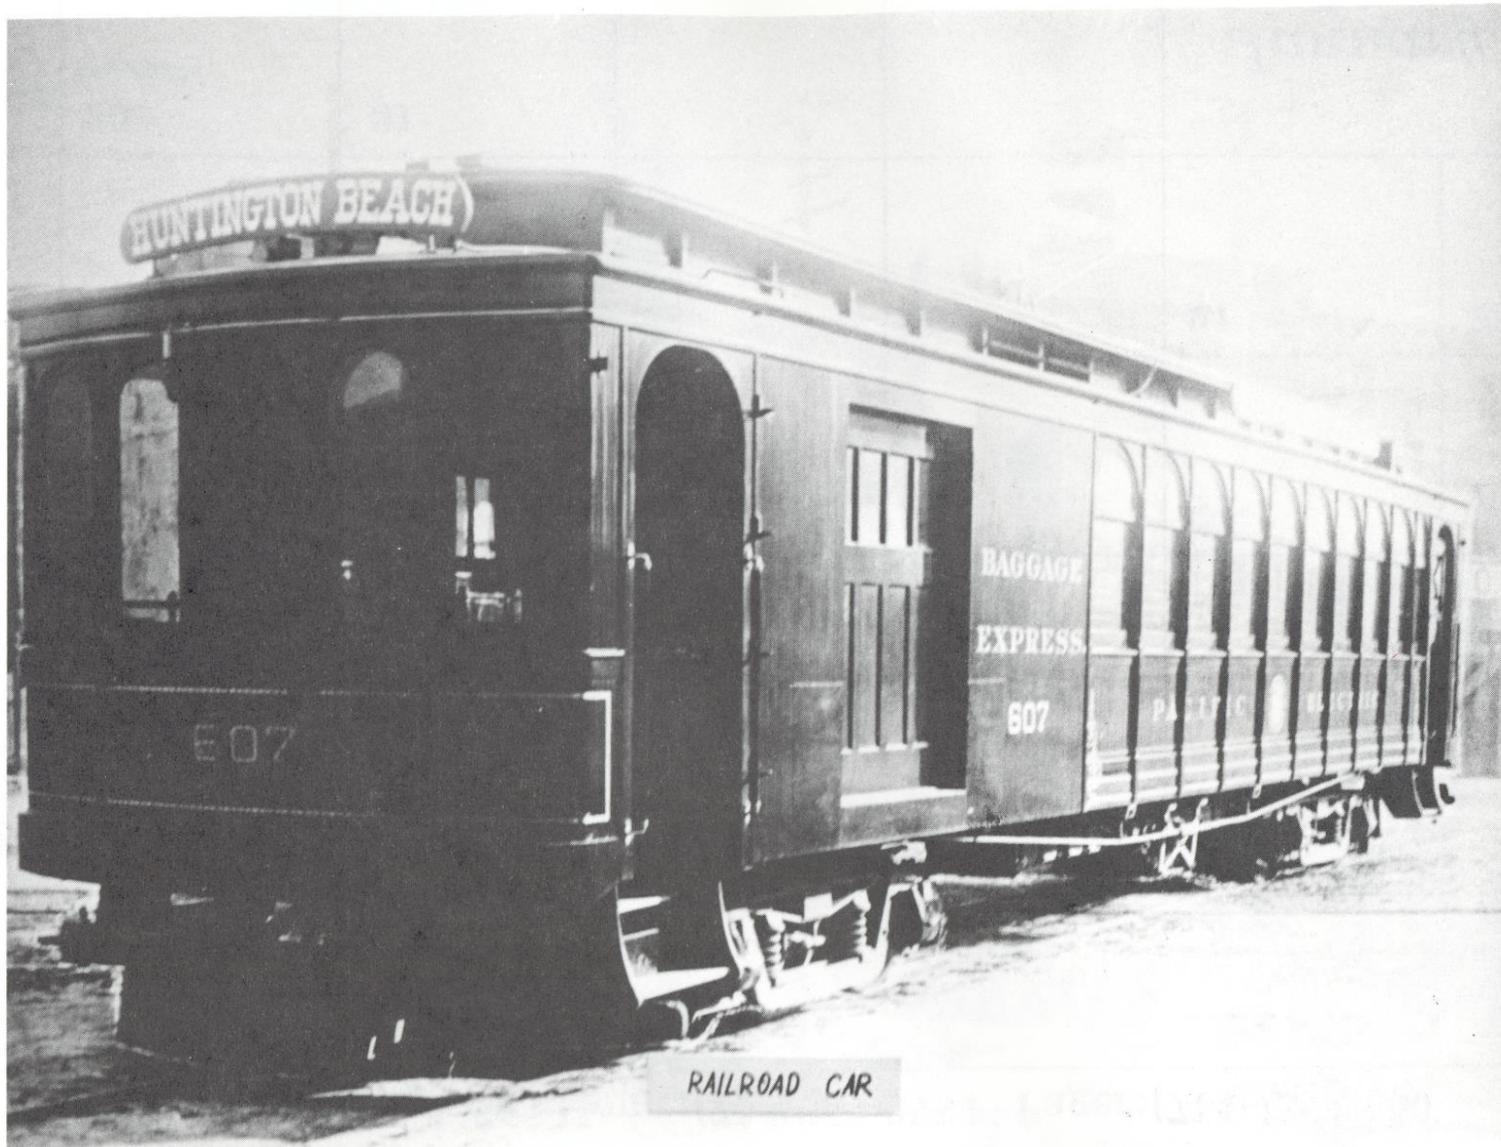

HUNTINGTON BEACH CAL.
JULY 4th 1908

STAR REAL ESTATE, located at 20951 Brookhurst St., Huntington Beach, one of our four offices committed to quality service, whether you are buying or selling property. Pictured above is our office and some of the agents that contributed their time and efforts to bring you this 2nd issue of OUR HOME TOWN Calender for 1995.

Picture of the old Civic Center located at 5th and Main, housed the Chamber of Commerce. Demolished several years ago to make way for the new Town Square with shops and condominiums.

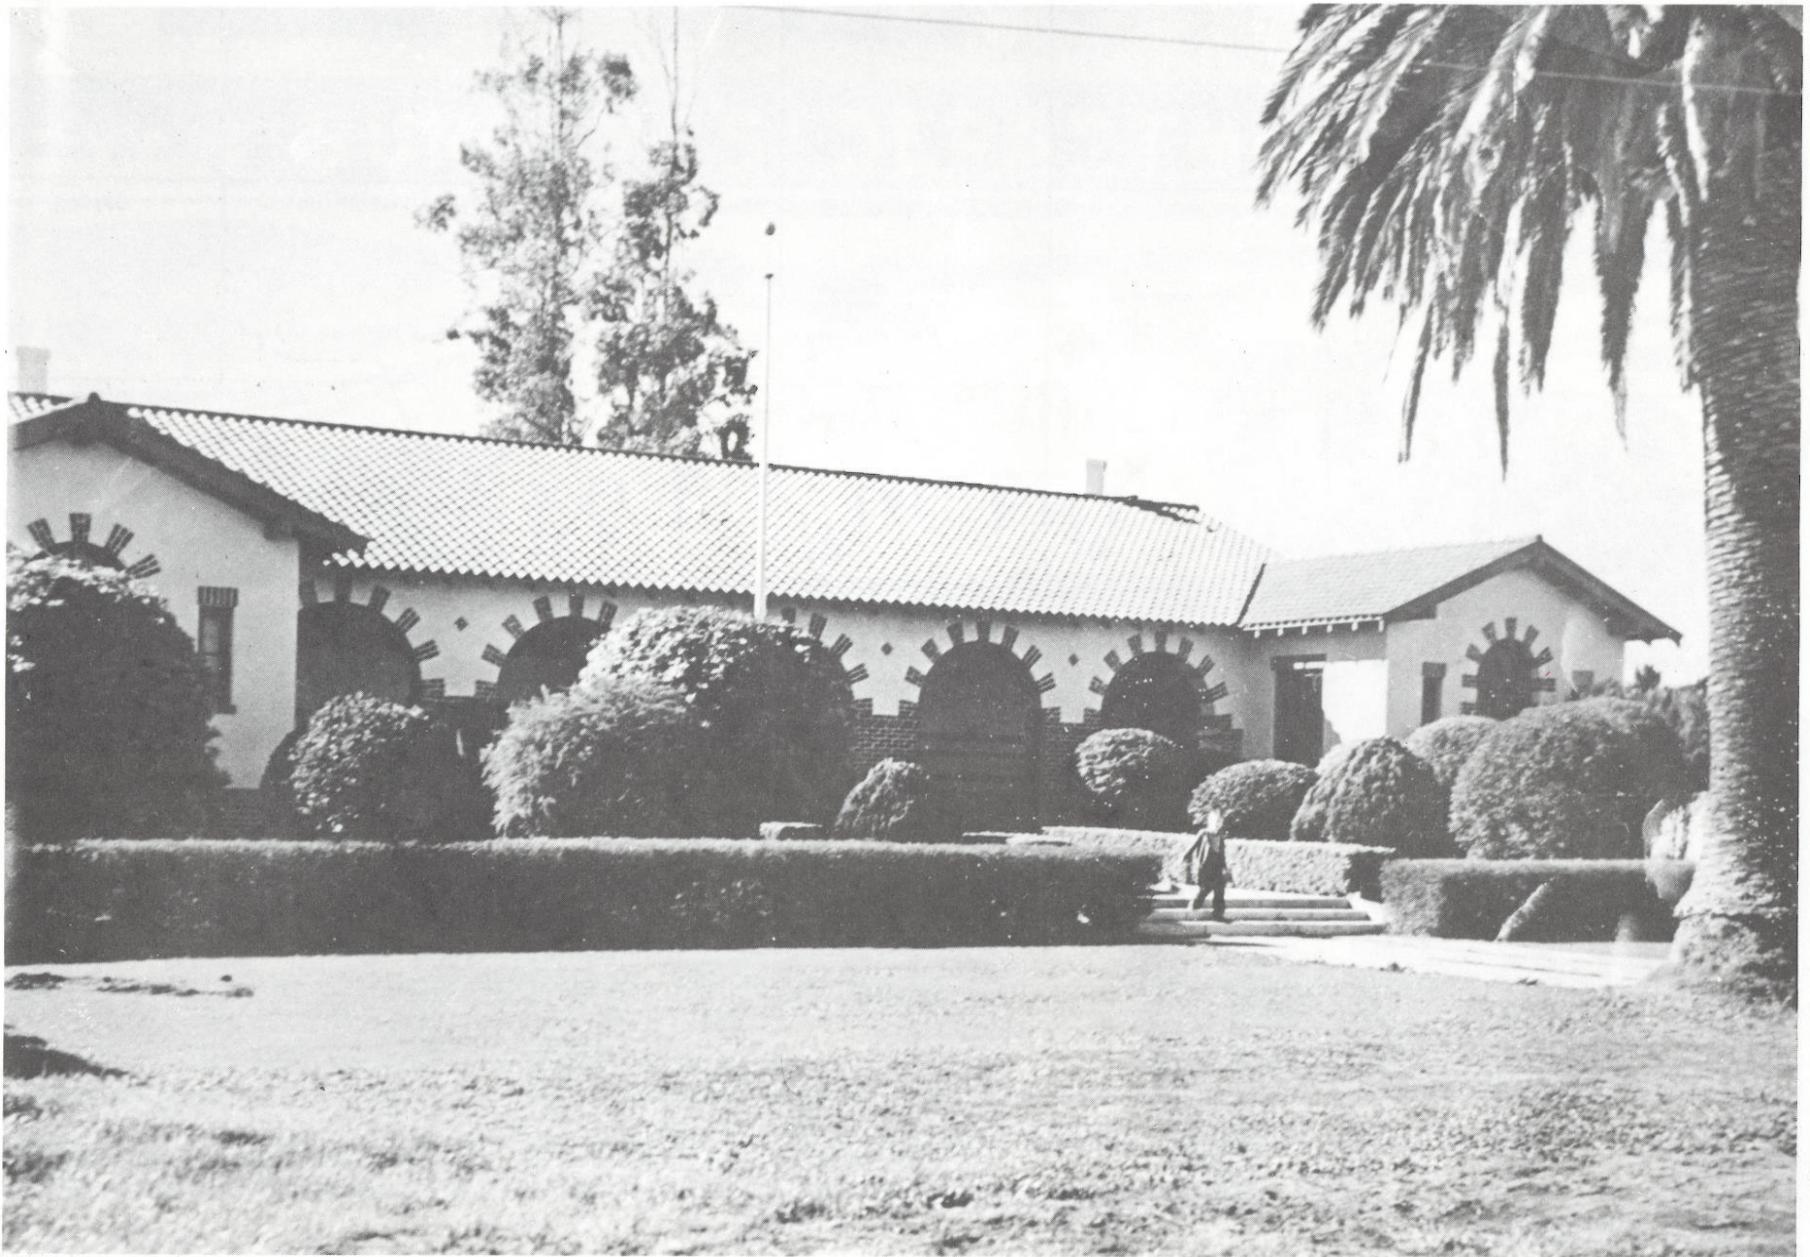

The 'Red Car', with right of way from the Valley thru Los Angeles and down to Huntington Beach. Built by Mr. Huntington and used to bring people to this area to live and work by the Sea. The railway ran along the ocean and through many of the beach town. Unfortunately much of the right of ways have been sold and the 'Red Car' is no more.

In keeping with the styles of the early 1900 this lovely beach home located on Pecan Street in Huntington Beach was one of our more showy homes. Long since destroyed it can only bring back memories of a happy past!

Old Meyer and Sundbye's Department Store. A fixture for many years in the downtown area. All the latest items and styles desired in the early days of Huntington Beach!

Country Day School, located on the Southeast corner of Warner and Springdale. Used as a day care school until torn down about seven years ago to make way for a strip shopping center.

EARLY INTERIOR OF SECURITY PACIFIC NATIONAL BANK

A busy day in the old Security Pacific National Bank located in downtown Huntington Beach.

'Our Glorious 4th of July'. Used in the 4th of July parade in 1908! The float represents the 13 Colonies, with the standing girl representing the United States. Look for Uncle Sam who is on the left side of the float!

Everyone enjoys the summer sea breezes in Huntington Beach! 'Sunshine and Shadow' a day beneath the pier 1906!

Let us introduce you to Our Honeys on the beach! Picture taken on the sand in the early 1930's.

A hot time in the old town tonight! The Pavilion, located on the sand by the pier, was a place for dancing to the hottest bands. The Pavilion still stands but has been renovated and now houses Maxwells Restaurant.

'The Standard Market' located at Walnut and Main is still standing but awaits renovation. This market served the needs of the people that settled Huntington Beach and remained active until just a few years ago. The fruits were trucked in from the Valley!

Christmas in Huntington Beach. The steel beams that arched Main Street and Ocean Blvd. (now known as Pacific Coast Highway) Arch was built in 1930.
