

FESTIVAL OF FOLKTALES, TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 2011

11:00 to 2:00		Sapadilla – Come enjoy the sounds of this unique, upbeat and energetic steel drum band. It’s like a Caribbean Fusion Explosion!	Outside Circle FREE
11:00 to 11:40		Spring Jam Spectacular Laser Show In a darkened theater, watch lasers draw larger than life animated pictures that welcome the carefree days of spring with a musical score featuring songs forever associated with summer	Library Theater Special $3 ticket tickets on sale May 25
11:30 to 12:00		Storytime Shenanigans with Miss Mary Pat — Back by popular demand, it’s Miss Mary Pat. Her storytimes amuse kids of all ages with songs, stories and silliness. Lots of audience participation. Toddlers and pre-schoolers adore her!	Tabby Theater 4 carnival tickets
11:30 to 12:15		The Puppet Company’s “Anansi the Spider” Children sit on the floor and enjoy an African folktale brought to life through puppets. Anansi the Spider must undergo a series of trials in order to bring stories back to the people.	C/D Room 4 carnival tickets
12:30 to 1:15		David Fisher: The Rope Warrior—A thrilling combination of the best elements of rope jumping, aerobics, martial arts and gymnastics, including a spectacular light show. Current Guinness Book of World Records holder and featured in Ripley’s Believe It or Not.	Library Theater Special $3 ticket tickets on sale May 25
12:30 to 1:00		Storytime Shenanigans with Miss Mary Pat Back by popular demand, it’s Miss Mary Pat. Her storytimes amuse kids of all ages with songs, stories and silliness. Lots of audience participation. Toddlers and pre-schoolers adore her!	Tabby Theater 4 carnival tickets
12:45 to 1:30		The Puppet Company’s “Mae Lin & the Magic Brush ” While sitting on the floor, children can enjoy this show based on a Chinese folktale where a young girl gets a magic brush which can make everything she paints come to life!	C/D Room 4 carnival tickets
1:30 to 2:00		Storytime Shenanigans with Miss Mary Pat Back by popular demand, it’s Miss Mary Pat. Her storytimes captivate and amuse kids of all ages with songs, stories and silliness. Lots of audience participation. Toddlers and pre-schoolers adore her!	Tabby Theater 4 carnival tickets
2:00 to 2:45		David Fisher: The Rope Warrior—A thrilling combination of the best elements of rope jumping, aerobics, martial arts and gymnastics, including a spectacular light show. Current Guinness Book of World Records holder and featured in Ripley’s Believe It or Not.	Library Theater Special $3 ticket tickets on sale May 25
2:15 to 3:00		The Puppet Company’s “Perez and Mondinga” Sit on the floor and enjoy this Mexican folktale. Mondinga the cockroach wants to get married. She has many suitors, but it’s Perez Mouse who captures her heart. (But what about the cat?)	C/D Room 4 carnival tickets
2:15 to 2:45		Academy of International Dance Members of the World Fusion Youth Ensemble present a musical performance featuring folk dances from around the world.	Outside Circle FREE

Friends of the Children's Library present their annual

Festival of Folktales

Tuesday, June 28, 2011

11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Central Library

The Rope Warrior

12:30 AND 2:00 p.m.

Library Theater

$3 special ticket per person

Tickets for Spring Jam
Spectacular Laser Show
AND
The Rope Warrior
go on sale,
May 25, 2011

These tickets buy a seat in the theater. First come, first served with seating. Seats NOT FILLED by the start of the show will be sold to non-ticket holders.

Spring Jam Spectacular Laser Show

11:00 a.m. Library Theater

$3 special ticket per person

Festival Carnival tickets are .50 each or a strip of 11 tickets for $5.

Carnival tickets may be used for puppet shows, games, crafts, storytellers and facepainting.

Food Vendors are CASH ONLY.

Carnival tickets are available starting May 25 and will also be sold during the event.

They do not guarantee seating at shows.

Please see the back side of flyer for shows, times and places.

One World, Many Stories

Children's Summer Reading Program 2011.

Sign up online starting June 20 or at the library starting June 27.

HUNTINGTON BEACH PUBLIC LIBRARY
CHILDREN'S
www.hbpl.org
(714)375-5107

TARGET