FUNDRAISING

Discussed Rubio's Night fundraiser set for March 15, 4:00 p.m. - closing time. Fliers are to be distributed at next meeting.

YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT DAY

Marina High School TV agreed to aid in the filming of the introductory video; member Brian Harts was present and agreed on filming various areas of the city on weekends or weekday afternoons/evenings. On March 12, some filming would begin on detailing why Huntington Beach is great. Thirty people are allowed from each school to participate in Youth in Government Day; applications have been handed out to each school. The topic for debate was chosen to be on the plastic bag banning. Arriola and Ostovarpour are to be in charge of decorations, and Cronk in charge of food.

PROJECT SELF SUFFICIENCY

Requested a canned food drive.

YOUTH BOARD COMMENTS

Lucas discussed MTV concert, to be held (tentatively) on April 6 at Marina High School. The time has been set from 5 - 9 PM, and tickets will be pre-sold at high schools for $10 on the first week, and up to $15-20 the following week or at the door. ID required to receive admittance. Tickets are provided by Francisca Media along with ticket booths.

Members are in charge of promotion, and need to be there to help set up. Before the concert, students will be allowed to perform to display talent within the schools. 15% of proceeds from the concert will be donated to the Butcher family.
