Letter from the Community Services Director

Warmer weather and longer days mean spring is turning into summer in Huntington Beach. All over the city, the community is taking advantage of warm, sunny days to enjoy this vibrant community and the beautiful out-of-doors that is available at our fingertips. What better time to try something new than right now? With a dozens of neighborhood and community parks, several community centers, and miles of beaches within our city limits, there is lots of space to get out and enjoy all the City of Huntington Beach has to offer. Within the pages of the SANDS Community Services Guide are a variety of ways to discover opportunities to learn, grow and to have fun! Inside the spring issue of the SANDS Community Services Guide is a wide array of classes and programs, including the highly anticipated "Summer preview" showcasing exciting summer camps and classes! For more news, information, classes, programs, and facilities about the Community Services Department, visit http://www.huntingtonbeachca.gov/government/departments/community_services/ Yes, "Parks Make Life Better!" in Huntington Beach.
