CITY OF HUNTINGTON BEACH, CA

October 9, 2019

4th Annual Great Pacific Air Show Success!

While official numbers aren't available just yet, hundreds of thousands of people flocked to the beach, filled city parks, and watched from hotel balconies and roof tops as the Great Pacific Airshow took flight Oct. 4-6. It was a first in many years that a U.S. airshow included three jet teams from three countries: Canadian Snowbirds, Royal Air Force Red Arrows and the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds. Save the date for 2020! The Great Pacific Air Show returns September 18-20, 2020!

Huntington Beach Welcomes New City Manager Oliver Chi!

Huntington Beach's newest City Manager Oliver Chi officially took the reigns of City Hall on Monday, September 30.

Oliver's positive energy and infectious personality has quickly spread throughout City Hall. In just one week, he has conducted multiple staff meetings to meet with all employees, presented at a Navigation Center Open House, attended his first City Council meeting and watched the 4th Annual Great Pacific Air Show!

He will contribute to this City Manager's Report with his own column going forward! Welcome to Surf City, Oliver!

POLICE DEPARTMENT

It's #pinktober and once again you will see our pink police car cruising around town in support of the women and men who have fought, continue to fight, and will fight against breast cancer.

This October the pink car represents something just a little more personal for those shown in the photo. Officer Tommy Higgs' wife Candace, Officer Angie Bennett, and Latent Fingerprint Examiner Cheryl Garcia all beat breast cancer in 2019. And, even though each person's journey is different, having the support of family, friends, members of our department and the community has been remarkable and humbling.

For this year's Pinktober Car, Officer Higgs designed the wrap, which was paid for by a generous donation from one of our community members in Officer Bennett's name to the Huntington Beach Police Community Foundation.

In addition to our pink car, we will also be out at California Pizza Kitchen today and tomorrow for both lunch and dinner hours to sell our #PinkPatch swag. You can find us at Bella Terra from 10:30am - 1:30pm and again from 5pm - 7:30pm. We will have patches, coins, t-shirts, label pins and bracelets for sale, which all go to support breast cancer support and awareness. You can also show the flier (on the next page) all day for take-out or dine-in and help!

So when you see our pink car out and about the streets of Huntington Beach this October, you'll know three families are especially grateful for all of the support, blessings and love we have received over the past year. Now go get your cancer screenings, and remember - early prevention is key!

ART, MUSIC, FOOD, & MUCH MORE!

On October 13, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., HBAC once again combines two of the town's foremost art events, Family Arts Day and Art in the Park, to present the second annual Surf City Arts Fest!

For nearly two decades, Family Arts Day has welcomed hundreds of participants into the Art Center's galleries, studios, and parking lot to share in a day of exploration, art making, and fun! Professional artists lead over 10 unique, hands-on art projects in this intergenerational event. Children and their families will learn together, sharing the benefits of creative development and play.

Again, this year, the fun extends into Triangle Park where approximately 75 artist booths will be set up for Huntington Beach's very own fine arts and crafts fair. Live music and food and beverage vendors will enhance this art experience, guaranteeing a delightful afternoon in our downtown HB neighborhood for all. A street closure on Main Street between the Art Center and Triangle Park will allow visitors to stroll between the art making, viewing, and shopping, safely and at their leisure.
