3rd Annual
National Crime Victims' Rights Week Ceremony
Thursday, April 6 at 11 a.m.
Pier Plaza

Join the Huntington Beach Police Department and the City as we host a ceremony in observance of National Crime Victims' Rights Week—April 2-8.

Led by Chief Robert Handy and a number of impactful speakers, we will honor courageous victims, survivors of victims and the victim advocates.

MURDERED CHILDREN

Strength. Resilience. Justice.

These words reflect a vision for the future in which all victims are strengthened by the response they receive, organizations are resilient in response to challenges, and communities are able to seek collective justice and healing.
