

National Crime Victims' Rights Week | April 10-16, 2016

Serving Victims
Building Trust
Restoring Hope

Save the Date

2nd Annual
National Crime Victims' Rights Week
Candlelight Vigil
Thursday, April 14, 7:30 to 8 p.m.
Pier Plaza

Join the Huntington Beach Police Department and the City as we host a candlelight vigil in observance of National Crime Victims' Rights Week.

Led by Chief Robert Handy, Mayor Jim Katapodis, and a number of impactful speakers, we will honor courageous victims, survivors of victims and the victim advocates.

CRIME SURVIVORS
crimesurvivors.org

MADD
Activism | Victim Services | Education®

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROGRAMS
IMPACTING LIVES. CHANGING COMMUNITIES.