

This reported before new city Hall
was built.

(2)

MEMO

John Melson

Gothard above Ellis used to house Mexican process (form workers) where new site
is of fire dept training.

On Gothard north of Holly 50 gus - Eucalyptus
trees on west side,
near where Gothard
bends below Ellis
on ~~the~~ high knoll or hill is where I think remains were. I may be wrong but something happened there.

CHARLOTTE DULL-MELSON
211 Chicago Ave.
Huntington Beach, CA 92648
(714) 536-5163

MEMO

John Melson

Sources to check:

1. Connie Brockway
2. Alicia Westworth
3. Coppocciana's
4. Mrs. Wheeler
5. City Council minutes
 (council action permits.)
6. newspaper (public speaking)
7. Melson Family -
 Delaware/Garfield
8. Janice
9. HB Historical Society?
 Opal or Tom

CHARLOTTE DULL-MELSON
211 Chicago Ave.
Huntington Beach, CA 92648
(714) 536-5163

MEMO

John Melson

12/10/14

Notes from Chai: ^{artifacts}
Indian Burial grounds and/or Remains

A. Looking for newspaper articles either from:

1. H.B News
2. Daily Pilot
3. The Register

CHARLOTTE DULL-MELSON
211 Chicago Ave.
Huntington Beach, CA 92648
(714) 536-5163

from 1966-1976. Most likely 1973 - regarding

disturbing Indian Burial grounds on Gothard
near Ellis, behind Holly Sugar Factory. They were stopped. may be near
HB Mesa or Reservoir Hill

This newspaper article was sent to me by my aunt in HB sometime between 3/66-7/76
Discovered when tractor/bulldozer was operating?