DETAILS: The Huntington Beach Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in identifying a bank robbery suspect. On February 5, 2010, at 3:14 PM, the robbery suspect walked into the Bank of America, located near Brookhurst and Adams, wearing a dark Hoodie sweatshirt, San Diego Chargers baseball hat, and black "wrap-around" sunglasses. The suspect waits in the customer line and then approaches the teller. The suspect provides a note demanding large bills and then he took the note back from the teller. No weapon was displayed during the robbery. After receiving the money he flees the bank on foot, with no vehicle seen. This bank robbery suspect may be responsible for a recent Fountain Valley bank robbery, also on Brookhurst. There was a possible suspect vehicle seen during the Fountain Valley crime, which was a white Toyota pick-up truck. Photos of the suspect are attached to this release.

If you have any information on the identity of this subject, please contact the Huntington Beach Police Department's hotline number (714) 375-5066 or Investigations Division between 7 AM and 5 PM at (714) 536-5951.
