UPDATE

The Huntington Beach Police Department is releasing the following updated information regarding last night's disturbance in the downtown area;

At this time there have not been any serious injuries reported. We did have several officers who sustained minor injuries during the event and at least one citizen who was treated at the hospital and released after being struck with a rubber projectile fired by law enforcement.

We are currently looking at video and pictures via citizens and social media in an attempt to identify additional suspects involved in criminal activity during the disturbance. If you have any video or pictures they can be e-mailed to hbpfiles@gmail.com. You can also call our hotline at 714 375-5066 with any information.

The following subjects were arrested for various charges last night and booked at our city jail:

Michael John LYTLE – Anaheim 30 years old – Disorderly Conduct and Resisting Arrest

Andres GOMEZ – Huntington Beach 24 years old – Refuse to Disperse and Resisting Arrest

Michael Anthony AVILA – Santa Ana 28 years old – Resisting or Delaying a Police Officer

Joseph MONTERROSA – Ontario 28 years old – Disorderly Conduct and Resisting Arrest
