Details:

On January 9, 2017 at approximately 10:21 pm, officers responded to 21871 Newland St regarding an agency assist call for medics. A female reported a possible overdose of a male and stated he was agitated because she called for assistance. The first officer arrived at the location and found a female down on the ground unresponsive and a male standing next to her holding a knife. The male was uncooperative with the officer's commands at which time several shots were fired at the suspect. The suspect was transported to a hospital and is listed in critical condition. Neither the female nor the officer were injured.

As per our protocol, the Orange County Sheriff's Department has been called to investigate the shooting. Their investigators are conducting an investigation into the incident and all further press inquiries and information will be handled by their department.
